Hunton & Williams LLP Ranks Among Top 30 Firms for Exceptional Client Service

Hunton & Williams LLP is pleased to report that BTI Consulting Group has included the firm among its 2009 Client Service 30, a group of only 30 law firms ranked best-in-class when it comes to client service. Hunton & Williams has been honored for its outstanding client service as a member of the BTI Client Service A-Team for each of the eight years the report has been issued. This is the third time during the last six years that the firm also has been ranked among the A-Team's elite BTI Client Service 30.

"We are especially proud to be included in this select group of firms because BTI's rankings are based solely on direct, unprompted client feedback," stated Hunton & Williams Managing Partner Wally Martinez. "This is a strong affirmation of our commitment to providing outstanding service daily, both to our external and internal clients."

The 2009 Client Service 30 were selected from a group of 504 law firms, based on feedback from interviews with more than 1,100 corporate counsel at Fortune 1000 companies. Among the attributes rated highly by those interviewed were exceptional legal service skills, quality products, good client communication, value for the dollar, strong client-focus, an understanding of the client's business, good problem-solving skills and the ability to deal with unexpected changes.

"What a great accomplishment for the firm and a wonderful reflection of how highly we value exceptional client service here at Hunton & Williams," added Barry Koval, the firm's Executive Director. "My congratulations to each and every one of our lawyers and staff for making this honor possible."
